SUMMER CLASSES & WORKSHOPS

SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

The Small Business Management Program (SBM) is a unique combination of classroom learning, one-on-one coaching from an adviser and peer-to-peer business networking — all with the goal of making you and your business more successful.

Benefits of the SBM program include increased sales and profits, improved cash flow and business operations, improved relations with employees, establishing appropriate goals for the future of the business and creating an overall more enjoyable business-ownership experience.

Starting in October 2023, we will offer three SBM options, including:

- SBM Level 1 -
Intended for newer business owners interested in improving financial and time management skills while gaining the knowledge and skills necessary for increased business effectiveness and profitability.
- SBM Advanced -
Builds on the business fundamentals learned in Level 1 with a focus on systems planning, in-depth financial analysis, pitch training and longer term strategies for growth and development.

- NEW! SBM for Contractors
Centered on supporting new contractors, covering topics including payroll and taxes, basic financials, government contracts, working with subcontractors, marketing, intermediate estimating, working with vendors and much more.

All SBM courses include free access to valuable market research analysis, extensive peer networking opportunities, and personalized 1:1 advising sessions aimed to help you apply course material to your specific business. Light meals are provided during evening course sessions.

Course completion qualifies CCB license holders with 27 hours of continuing education credit.

Each level meets one Monday evening per month, October–June

Pre-register now by calling
541-440-7824.
(no payment required)

Full registration opens in September.
