UMPQUA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

BOARD POLICY

BOARD POLICY SERIES NUMBER: 600.09

TITLE: FINANCIAL EXIGENCY

In the event of a decline in revenue or due to a natural disaster, at the recommendation of the president, the Board of Trustees may declare financial exigency.

Such a declaration may allow the college to terminate some debts, contracts and/or employment contracts. See collective bargaining agreements.

UCC complies with all state and federal regulations under the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1992 (ADA) and/or Oregon statute ORS 659.415 by recognizing reinstatement rights as legally required and as contained in the ACEUCC and UCCFA collective bargaining agreements.
